SUBJECT: Executive Order on Personnel Security

The Legal Adviser to the National Security Council has been asked to chair a working group to review the issue of access to classified information and the draft Executive Order on the subject prepared during the Reagan Administration. Accordingly, you are requested to nominate a representative to serve on this working group. The representative should be a senior lawyer in the General Counsel's office (in the case of the Justice Department from the Office of Legal Counsel, and in the case of the FBI, from the Legal Counsel Division) and should be a person who has not worked on this issue in the past. In the event your department or agency would like to nominate a person from your security office as well as someone from the General Counsel's office, such persons also should not have worked this issue before.

Please respond in writing to this memorandum by close of business, Tuesday, March 28, 1989.

G. Philip Hughes
Executive Secretary
